

STUDIO CITY SUN

April 13-19, 2007

Kelly Flint has been the long-time singer for New York City band Dave's True Story, playing countless shows and recording five albums with the cult favorites. But underneath that group's jazzy exterior has lurked the voice of a singer influenced by folk-rock and country music. On her solo debut, Kelly Flint wastes no time in showing what she's capable of. Her voice is immediately winning, causing wonder why it took this Midwesterner so long to step out on her own. Even better, she wrote all but one of the songs on Drive All Night, and the sole cover is an arresting version of the Moody Blues' "Story in Your Eyes." This is someone who obviously has a lifetime of feelings locked inside, and is ready now to unleash their warmth and power on the public. Finally. Bill Bentley SHORT CUTS
